

Loan Account Verification For Banking Requestion Authorities for ePayment

Revenue Recovey collections at villages for Non Government Departments (Boards, Corporations, Agencies etc.) and Banking Companies are remitted to Bank Account or TSB Accounts.

In the case of Banking Companies, each requisition has Loan Account No. mapped to it during requisition filing itself. This account detail is used for remittance.

By intoducing an ePayment system, all the collection on Requisitions filed from offices/ branches will be remitted to the mapped Bank/TSB Accounts by an online process.

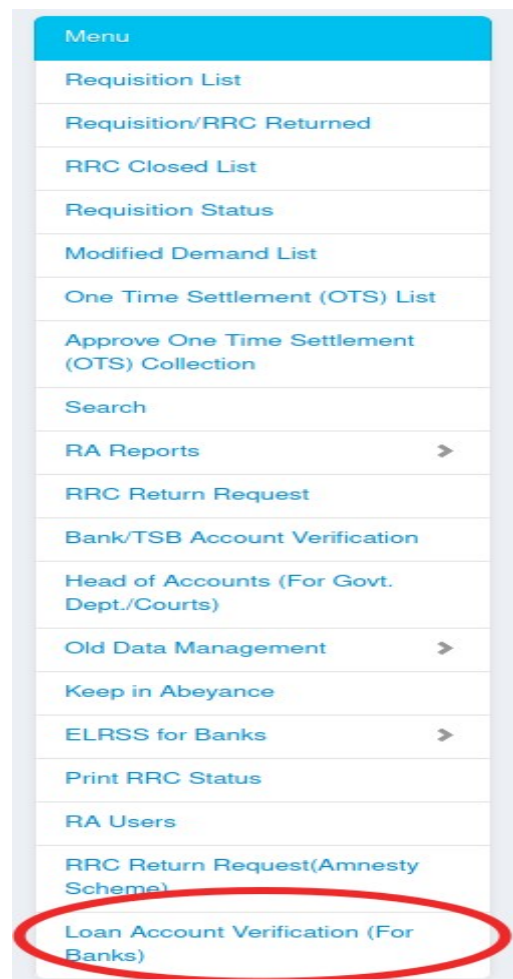

Considering the seriousness, Requisition Authorities should make sure the correctness of Bank/TSB Account details submitted against each requisitions. RA - Approving Authority can verify these details in RROnline. If any discrepancy found in any of the account details, RA should correct these details at the earliest. After completion of corrections (if any), all RAs should give a consent for ePayment within the time frame set for this activity. After the time frame, it will be deemed as consented by RA and Loan Account details will be used for ePayment / Online Remittance of collected amount.
